Message from our Pastor

According to Scripture (Hebrews 11.1), faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. I have been contemplating and exploring “unknowing” a lot in my own life lately. In Sunday School we have discussed this as well. Sometimes “the world” which can include church leaders, tells us that if we are true Christians or good Christians or faithful Christians, we will know and be certain, we will be unwavering, we will believe.

But we can never know, be certain, or have unwavering belief because we are not, and never will be “all knowing.” We worship a God who is knowable in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus and at the same time complete and total mystery. We know God, we love Jesus, we feel the Holy Spirit and yet there are not words or concepts that can capture them. Faith is resting in not knowing and sometimes to get to that place of rest, we have to do a lot of unknowing – of letting go of things we used to be confident in or even certain of. We have to unknow a lot of things taught to us when we were children. Perhaps the image of God as a man with a white beard with his hand on the smite button. Perhaps we have to let go of the idea that we must believe that everything in the Bible was written by the hand of God and is factual and historic, even when it contradicts itself. Perhaps we have to let go of a lot of judgment of “others.”

The process of having a deep and abiding faith is about letting go, removing, taking off and unknowing. Certainty is not only not required in faith, it is a stumbling block, an obstacle to it. As soon as we think or believe that we understand God, that we know God, we have put God in a box, created God in our image, and limited God. I invite us this summer to explore our faith through curiosity, wondering and questioning and finding time and space to let go.

Honored and Blessed to be your pastor,

Carol

Celebration!

On the same day, Saturday, May 18, 2019, Sung Bauta graduated with a PhD, and our Ministerial Intern, Jiaan Burford, graduated with his MDiv degree from Asbury Theological Seminary. On Sunday, May 19th, we celebrated in worship at Providence.

Many Hands. . .

Mowing, trimming, planting, weeding, watering – on any given day this time of year, our dedicated volunteers will be at the church keeping our grounds beautiful. Gary Anderson (top left) and Jan and John Downs (above) are out there trimming. Charlie and Cathie Slack (top right and right) are weeding and clearing away debris.

Providence Women’s Service Group News

The Women’s Service Group is collecting individual size toiletry items (lotion, soap, shampoo, toothpaste, etc.) for the Jessamine Co. Homeless Shelter. Personal-size items are available at many stores such as WalMart, Kroger, etc. Or when you stay at a hotel, save those unused toiletry items – soaps, shampoos, toothpaste, etc. – and bring them to place in the basket in the church narthex.

Providence Legacy Fund

We invite you to prayerfully consider becoming part of our church legacy this year by designating Providence in your Will or as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy and adding your name to our Legacy Book. You can designate a specific amount or a percentage of your estate to go to the church upon your death. Everyone can participate and there is no minimum participation level.
